Examination-in-Chief by Sri. DPR advocate for accused.

Complainant is my son in law. The Complainant and my daughter had the love and married thereafter at Srirama Temple, at Tumakuru and also got the registration of marriage. After the marriage my daughter and the Complainant were residing at K.R. Puram, Bengaluru. They lived cordially for few days subsequently there was a quarrel between the Complainant and my daughter. The Complainant had the illicit relationship with one Gujarathi girl. In view of the said relationship the Complainant has left my daughter. After the marriage, the Complainant used to demand money from us. Accordingly, we have paid money and also given jewels / ornaments to daughter and Complainant. thereafter, we have obtained the house on lease for the stay of Complainant and my daughter. We have taken the house on lease in the name of my daughter. There is a dispute regarding the lease amount between the Complainant and my daughter. My daughter has filed criminal complaint against the Complainant for the offence P/U/S 498A of IPC and also filed petition for divorce in the family court.

On 30.04.2015 my daughter came to my house along with her daughter. On 01.05.2015 at about 1-00 p.m. the Complainant came to my house and he was sleeping after the lunch in my house. We have kept cheque leafs and cash of Rs.1,50,000/- and one blank stamp paper in the almira. The Complainant stating that there is some urgency left the house at 2-00 p.m. subsequently when the Complainant left the house within few hours we found that the Complainant has taken away signed cheque leafs, stamp paper and cash of Rs.1,50,000/-. We under the impression that the Complainant may return the aforesaid amount and documents within few days and he might have taken the aforesaid amount and documents in order to threaten us we have not lodged any complaint. Subsequently I found the withdrawal of Rs.42,000/- from my bank account. Thereafter I have lodged a complaint against the Complainant on 18.05.2015. Though the police promised us to call the Complainant for enquiry, but the Complainant not appeared before the enquiry. Subsequently, the police colluding with the Complainant filed the false B report on my complaint. I have challenged the said B final report filed by the police. There was no necessity for me to raise loan of Rs.2,42,000/- from the Complainant as myself was a employee and my husband was also employee. We had landed properties also and absolutely there were no necessity for us to borrow any loan from anybody.

I have produced the following documents in this case.

Ex.D2	True copy of FIR
Ex.D3	True copy of Complaint
Ex.D4	True copy of police acknowledgement
Ex.D5	Certified copy of the order sheet in Crime No. 135/2015
Ex.D6	Salary slip
Ex.D7 and D8	Two RTC's
Ex.D9	Salary slip
Ex.D10 and D11	True copy of Form No. 2 and 3
Ex.D12	RTC
