

2006 ALD 2 421 .

Pfimex Pharmacauticals Limited v. Garden Finance Ltd.

Andhra Pradesh High Court (Jun 19, 2000)

CASE NO.

2668 of 2000

ADVOCATES

Kalyana Rama Krishna

JUDGES

Mr. Justice B. Sudershan Reddy

JUDGMENT

- (1) Both these petitions may be disposed of by a common order.
- (2) Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned public prosecutor.
- (3) There is absolutely no justification whatsoever on the part of the learned vi additional metropolitan sessions judge, secunderabad. In refusing to furnish the certified copy of the docket sheet in criminal appeal nos. 472 and 473 of 1999. After all, the proceedings are not confidential but form an integral part of the judicial proceedings. The petitioner is undoubtedly entitled for the certified copy of the said proceedings.
- (4) In the circumstances, the learned vi additional metropolitan sessions judge, secunderabad is directed to supply the certified copies of the docket orders of the proceedings on payment of usual charges. The docket orders shall be furnished by tomorrow itself. The petitions are accordingly allowed.